Runs of heads and tails

Karl Grill

Technische Universität Wien

The monograph "Random Walks in Random and Non-Random Environments" by Pál Révész gives an account of the theory of runs in a coin-tossing sequence and mentions a few unsettled questions in this area. We present an overview of known results and give answers to some of the open questions.