Processes increasing in the convex order and their associated martingales

Marc Yor

Université Paris VI

Many variants of the result by Peter Carr et al. that the arithmetic mean of geometric Brownian motion increases in the convex order shall be proven and discussed.